The waitress only came over when she felt she had to, which was to take our order and bring us our food. We were never checked on at any other time to see if we wanted our drinks refreshed, or if our food was OK. We had to flag another waitress to request glasses of water and also to ask for our bill. It's a shame, as we had a wonderful breakfast at the Magog location so we thought we'd try dinner here while staying... read more.
