We wanted something quick and not expensive in Quebec City and wandered into this charming little restaurant. Food came fast, place was lively, friendly, down to earth. no pretenses. There are a lot of choices in the old city, but most are tourist traps. This one felt authentic and was a lucky find. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. What libertiesz doesn't like about La Dominicaine cafe:

Was really excited to try out this place. Love to try food from all corners the world. I should say this was a bit disappointing. The food lacked the typical tropical flavors. It was just salt and pepper boring as far as I'm concerned. A little bit of spices would be really nice. The place however is clean and the owners are friendly and that's why the 3 star read more. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to La Dominicaine cafe even more worthwhile, You'll find nice South American cuisine also in the menu. In addition to simple snacks, sweet pieces and cakes, we also serve cold and hot drinks, there are also tasty vegetarian recipes in the menu.
