What User likes about Madame Bovary: Don't go for a quiet night. The place is for having fun in a loud place. Everything is a bit expensive (food, drinks, pool tables), but that's to be expected from that kind of place. Food was very good. We tasted different tapas style...meal and each of them were excellent. Presentation was perfect too. Atmosphere was fun, but we would've liked to be able to talk to each other without yelling. Later, we played pool (... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Madame Bovary:

Excellent and welcoming service. Very accommodating and helpful without being intrusive. Polite, kind, and attentive staff. Great food—original and tasty. Flavour combos are really exceptional. Way overpriced for a tapas concept at per plate. Cocktails are very good, although not nearly original or flavourful...enough for a cocktail bar. A fancy water glass is not a cocktail glass. Tons of ice so the drink waters down... read more. The restaurant spoils you with a little bit of this and a little bit of that with their appreciated Tapas, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian meals. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the visitors also love.
