It not the best Persian food you can get but the food is tasty with good quality. Large portions. Food comes with soup or salad with tea or coffee. Fresh and good cut meat for kabab. Don't forget to ask for tahdig: oily but tasty. BYOB! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. What

User doesn't like about Quartier Perse:

Had dinner on a Sunday evening. The restaurant was quiet with only a handful of patrons. The 4 of us had the shared dish Makhloot and found everything very savoury and true to their roots. We ordered a couple of stews, one chicken kabob and the filet mignon. The dishes came out with mounds of rice and with proportionally little protein. The flavours were good, and the service was very friendly. Can't say more than t... read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Quartier Perse even more worthwhile,

Particularly the unimaginable combinations of various ingredients offer the guests an unforgettable taste experience of this successful fusion cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Quartier Perse. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
