What User likes about Pocha de Marie:

I really enjoyed the two times I have been to this restaurant! The food is delicious and really authentic. The balance between salt, sugar and spice is perfect. The staff is nice and really wants us to have the best experience, whether it is our first experience with Korean food or not. read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, and into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather is right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about Pocha de Marie:

Every Friday my coworkers and I go out to eat in the area, this new place we visited was Korean food. The restaurant is nice, clean and the staff very attentive. The appetizers were really good, dumplings, salad, etc. I ordered the seafood soup, to my surprise the noodles seemed to be the packaged Ramen noodles (not sure), they were a little overcooked, but the broth and seafood pieces were very tasty. So ..having so many soup p... read more. The Pocha de Marie from Montréal offers various tasty seafood courses. Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion. Of course, the most various products are also used in the most creative combinations and variations - according to the motto of the Fusion Cuisine in the culinary offer, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
