In a busy restaurant area this one suffers from competition but we were lucky to stumble on to it and loved all the dishes served...the udon noodles were delicious along with all the sushi we ate! read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Hara Sushi:

we ate here - or tried to, food was disappointing, but still expensive. you could see right into the kitchen and we saw the cook lick food off his fingers and then handle more that was to be served.- yuck read more.
