What User likes about Thai Smile Cuisine: We had never heard of this place before but it was listed on Google as one of the places near us when we were visiting Vancouver Island. We are used to a Thai place close to us, called Smile Thai, in Maple Ridge. It had a similar name and great reviews, so we wanted to try it. We walked in, were greeted by a pleasant gentleman and as we were being seated I asked if he knew about the restaurant with a similar name. He... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Thai Smile Cuisine:

We enjoy Thai food and had been told that this was a great restaurant. The parking lot is small and that could be an issue at a busy time. We were greeted at the door and were promptly escorted to our table. We noted that several tables had "Reserved" signs on them and there were several other patrons in the restaurant indicating a local level of popularity. We were seated on what appeared to be folding chairs. I was... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The successful Asian fusion cuisine of the Thai Smile Cuisine from Qualicum Beach - a delicious mix of proven and the unexpected, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Not to be left out is the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
