The Menu of Junior Filipino from Montréal contains about 69 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about CA$10. What User likes about Junior Filipino: eating and the drinks were amazing, we ordered the kamayan (I think so) for two price-point $100, but soo worth it, we loved it and yes they will have leftover. only in our case our server black haare, blue eyes and nasen piercing, don't ask us if we go our huge left overs (it's a pretty big plate) before I even asked that they already put the dirty dishes on them so...yeah I'm not a huge fan of eating, so it really... The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Junior Filipino: I had the crispy pork as entrees. They were good and crispy but some of them felt too overcooked. I then had the spaghetti with fried chicken. Same thing with the crispy pork, the fried chicken felt overcooked. When comparing to Jollibee, another Filipino restaurant that serves spaghetti and fried chicken, I find Junior highly disappointing considering how much I paid for the meal. Their Palabok was pretty good and t... read more.
