Permanently Closed Culina Millcreek:

Made reservations recommended for Sunday brunch. The location had on street parking. The size of the restaurant is quite small and felt a bit cozy. This also tended to increase the noise level a bit, but nothing to be concerned about. The menu items were unique takes on some everyday items. Quality of the food and service was good. My only complaint is that my plate eggs benney was not as warm as it could have been. P... read more.
