We were staying at Castlerock and it was raining - so we decided to stay in and try Avalon for dinner. The ratings are mixed so we weren't sure what to expect. But our meal was amazingly good! I had the chicken teriyaki and my partner had the lamb. The presentation was impressive and both were cooked/seasoned perfectly. The lamb came with some sort of mashed potato pancake that was a very big hit! We also splurged on... read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Avalon Restaurant:

We are guests here at the inn. Sat down at 6:00 in a virtually empty dining room....."maybe" three other tables were filled. ONE HOUR AND FIFTEEN MINUTES LATER we finally had dinner. There is no excuse for this. I place NO BLAME on the two lovely ladies trying to be servers along with everything else at the inn. Obviously, the problem is in the kitchen and/or with management that is not present or does not care. T... read more.
