Jess and I went to Yaohan recently to have dinner, and while walking through the food court, one particular stall caught our eye, and it was Sun Century Cafe. This caught our eye because of the new and modern look it had.

We were wondering if this was a brand new food court stall, as it visually looked much better than the other stalls. The stone look on the side walls was actually wall paper, but it gave the stall s... read more. What User doesn't like about Sun Century Cafe:

Decent place if you're looking for the HK-style cafe food, especially if you're stuck along the mayhem near Yaohan centre. Plus it's one of the good ones open early in this food court. Their baked pork chop on fried rice isn't as good as Goldstone's in chinatown, but it does fit the craving; sauce isn't as tomato-y from what I recall earlier this year. Priced good at under $8. Would rather go across the food court @ Go... read more. The comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Sun Century Cafe even more worthwhile, Many customers are especially looking forward to the versatile, flavorful Chinese cuisine. We offer not only sweet pieces, cakes and simple snacks, but also cold and hot drinks.
