We tried the Discovery menu, a seven course meal. Beautiful, refined dishes that are artfully presented. Local and Canadian sourced ingredients. I found the deer a tad chewy—served rare with a slight sear, so I expected it to be more tender. Had a lovely table by the window so that we could admire the moon reflecting off the lake.

Friendly and knowledgeable servers. It didn't feel pretentious like some other star res... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Le Hatley Manoir Hovey:

We had ounces of wine x for either per ounce. The wine was good but no more. the sommelier made a mistake in the Met-vin agreement and did not correct it. for the price, we could have had a glass of wine from the beginning of the meal. for food, we took the tasting menu. My wife is allergic to seafood and for dish she was allowed only to the corresponding dishes in the vegetarian menu. the rabbit's chops looked more... read more.
