Cavino is conveniently attached to the Residence Inn, where my husband and I were staying during our trip to Vancouver. It was great to stop down for an appetizer, dessert, or late night drink. I would recommend for anyone staying in the Residence. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about Cavino:

I had lunch out of time in the cavino and found the menu too restricted. I asked for the soup of the day, which was super spicy, and the attendant didn't warn. If she had warned, I would change my request. The salad I ordered was delicious! I liked the environment, but I wouldn't go back for the food, but, yes, for a drink at happy hour. read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of small snacks and dishes while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too boring!, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. You can just get one of the scrumptious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
