This cafe reminded me of what many restaurants used to be like when I was a kid. Locally owned, friendly and fast service. The food was good and as expected. They used real eggs for scrambled eggs not the carton kind. We had coffee which was good too and sat outside at one of the tables. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Piccadilly Cafe:

We came here because it is very close to home. This is supposedly one of Ryan Gosling's favorite places. My standard breakfast was very good but my girlfriend's breakfast wrap was excessively salty and she couldn't eat it.

The staff did discount us and were very pleasant. read more. Are you looking for delicious delights?
