I usually have dinner here with my daughter before the ballet. The menu is always enticing and the food is excellent and beautifully served. They get you out in time for the performance feeling that you have had a leisurely dinner. Good wine list, and always a nice table d'hote as well as a la carte. Beautiful desserts, too. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What User

doesn't like about Cafe Du Centre National Des Arts:

We went last night before a show. the entries were good (salade and soup,) but all c" is cheerful to the main dishes: the salmon was correct without more, even a bit dry, but the lamb squarely horrible (heavy and fatty mist, meat full of tirailles.) we noticed it and nothing is produced from the server. even the coffee was warm, no bread, nor the second glass of wine of my spouse who never arrived. And a salted bill!... read more. Feeling as if you're in Hollywood once, and eat the experience; that's always possible in this lovingly decorated diner, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
