I stop by here every so often when I want a cuppa joe. Good value and friendly service. A tad of the more expensive side but worth the cup. Always full of office workers at coffee breaks so make sure you go early if you want a table at those times. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What

User doesn't like about Gourmet Cup:

I went in to buy some special tea for a gift. The barista asked me to wait while she finished getting coffee for those ahead of me, which I was happy to do. Then when my turn came I was totally ignored in favour of a more attractive customer. I commented, got a perfunctory `sorry`, and when I said that I had to leave soon was again ignored. This was, however, the only unpleasant experience that I had while in Yellowk... read more.
