If you want good, tasty food at reasonable prices, then come here. If you want "fancy" atmosphere, then go somewhere else. This is a very small restaurant. We have been here a few times. It always looked clean enough to pass the test. Last time we were there with another couple and we ordered four entrees. We had left-overs to take home. All the dishes were fresh, well-seasoned and good-sized portions. We'll be going... read more. What

User doesn't like about Thirsty Duck Cafe:

We went for a simple breakfast. The food was ok, how hard can eggs and sausages be? However, the restaurant was beyond filthy. I felt really squeamish even drinking my coffee. I will never be back. The owners should thank their lucky star that the health inspector hasn't shown up yet. read more.
