The restaurant is hidden in the far end corner of a busy super market shopping plaza. It offers a wide variety of Hong Kong style of western cuisine to chinese stir fry dishes. We were there for breakfast and brunch. We had pork chop on hot plate, egg sandwich, french toast, and milk tea. I specially like the french toast, which has a choice of filling and almost 2" thick! The restaurant is not noticeable from main r... read more. What User doesn't like about New Fortune Stone Restaurant:

This place has good portions and cheap prices. They have gone through a reno of the entire restaurant and although the same small place, the portions have smaller and the prices higher. $7 9 for noodle soup means this place is no longer cheap. Lunch Specials...in the $8 10 series with small portions mean that you now start looking elsewhere for cheap Chinese foods. If you are hungry, this place will not fill your nee... read more.
