Decent imitation meat is hard to come by, especially in restaurants. Was pleasantly surprised with this place, we happened to stop by one evening. Service was great and the food came quickly. The "rib" stir-fry was fantastic, but the $6 starter "chicken" bites stole the show. Will be coming back, relaxed atmosphere and a solid vegetarian meal! read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Tao

Asian Kitchen:

It was our first time at this restaurant. There was lively music and the atmosphere was nice, but we were not impressed with the food, which we found quite disappointing. The avocado and mango salads had miniscule pieces of avocado and mango, respectively. The shrimp and the beef were dried out, and the vermicelli was tasteless. I didn't care for the taste of the sauce on the vermicelli either. We came here with a gr... read more.
