Tender morsels of chicken served on aromatic rice. Totally authentic. Just like eating in Singapore. Read no more, just go....you won't be disappointed! Didn't order anything else since it'd only distract me. read more.

When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Cafe D'lite: We used to go to the Cafe D'lite described above on W. Broadway where they served food in blue Melmac dishes reminiscent of my home in the 1950s. It shut down or moved or perhaps changed its name but I discovered the Cafe D'lite express in the Aberdeen Mall food fare in Richmond. The food fare really offers many good and varied Asian food choices. I had a bowl of Laksa at the small Cafe D'lite Express booth and it wa... read more. For those who enjoy the pleasure of various scrumptious Roti or even the seemingly endless variations of Ayam for meals, Cafe D'lite in Vancouver is the place to be, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Cafe D'lite. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
