Excellent food, drink and decor. The service would have been perfect except the Manager did not quiet down an extremely loud and over-served individual until we regrettably cut our dinner short. The drunk was literally standing at his table yelling unintelligibly. We kindly said he was the reason we were leaving so abruptly; then, the Manager took the matter in hand. Definitely worth another visit and hopefully we wi... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Tryst Wine Small Plates:

Majority of food was over cooked and dry. Spicy and one meal was inedible. Noise level was very high to the point we couldn't hear each other across our table The other thing was upon entering with reservations we were told at the door there was a time limit to dining. We were given hour and mins. Would like to have known this upon booking the reservation. read more. Tryst Wine Small Plates from St. Albert is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to hang out with friends, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. The eatery provides a diverse variety of delicious tapas, which are undoubtedly worth a sample, The magical desserts of the restaurant also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
