We eat there once in every 3 or 4 weeks since they improved their menu: they added the torched salmon sushi that is so good. And they are better than Tata. Also some of their signature dishes: steam egg, mushroom soup and fish bone soup, baked scallop, beef tendon ramen, lamb skewer and their speciality rolls. Of course don't forget their black sesame ice cream. Beef sashimi and fish sashimi..... of course not to mi... read more. What User doesn't like about Syogun Japanese Cuisine:

The food was excellent - all of it. I was disappointed that there was no liquor license, after a long day at work. The service was extremely slow. I'm not sure if that was because I was alone, or if it was an anomaly, because I see many reviews praising them for their speed. Definitely worth a try. read more.
