Dragon Boat in Markham was too busy, so we tried this restaurant with ample parking. The food was good, though some felt Dragon Boat was better. Dim Sum was fresh and satisfying, with slightly above-average variety. The ambiance and service were decent, although some staff seemed overworked. Prices were higher than other places, but portions were sizeable. Despite some negative aspects, including occasional rudeness and long waits, the overall experience was positive for the value. While not a top-tier Chinese restaurant, this spot near the University of Toronto campus offers delicious dishes and a pleasant setting worth revisiting.
