I tried their Al Pastor Chicken Tacos with extra avocado at the Ontario College Information Fair and I was mindblown. The truck had quite a line eagerly awaiting to order. The service was a bit slow but it was worth the wait. The chicken had a lot of flavor and their zesty garlic cream was the cherry on top for a glorious set of tacos. The truck staff was cheerful, patient and accomodating. I also liked that they used... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its visitors, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Alijandro's Kitchen:

AVOID THE TACO AT ALL COST The shell tasted bland and dry, a weird pita type shell. Drenched in sauce, which did not taste good, the chicken and ingredients were bland as well. It was so bad I wouldn't try the rest of the menu. Worst taco I've ever eaten read more. At the local, the fresh and succulent juices on the drinks menu wonderfully complement the meals, visitors repeatedly praise the fine, light flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs and goat cheese is among the hits from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East. Even the versatile, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests, The dishes of this restaurant can also be ordered at home or at the celebration thanks to a catering service.
