Overall, A&W received mixed reviews from customers in recent months. Some customers were extremely disappointed with the food quality and service, with complaints of wrong orders, cold and mushy food, and even finding a hair in their sandwich. However, there were also positive comments about exceptional service from employees like MANJOD and Lovepreet, who went above and beyond for the customers. Suggestions were made for improvements in staffing to better serve both drive-thru and dine-in customers efficiently. Despite the mixed reviews, many customers still enjoyed the food and fast service at this A&W location, recommending it to others as a great restaurant with friendly staff.
