Had good reviews on Urbanspoon and off the beaten path of touristy Steveston. Considering the fresh seafood being sold a few blocks away, I was right in guessing that the fish would be fresh and tasty. It's a small place, but their menu is affordable (lots of sushi/sashimi combinations) and service is quick. We ordered spinach gomaе, a roll combo and sushi/sashimi combo, totaling just over $20. Seems like a hidden tr... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Sigrid Leuschke doesn't like about Xyclo Vietnamese Cuisine: Sushi Ten closed and is now called Fisherman's Sushi. I'm thinking the change over just happened as there were still congratulation flowers outside. We walked in and the place had one other table being served. This was peak lunch time and the street was busy...More read more. A selection of delicious seafood dishes is served by the Xyclo Vietnamese Cuisine from Richmond, fine particularly are the Maki and specialties like Inside-Out that this restaurant is known for. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Xyclo Vietnamese Cuisine. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast.
