What User likes about Paldo Gangsan: Our heritage walk ended at Bloor & Christie just before noon so I headed east along Bloor looking for a place for a quick lunch. Paldo Gangsan's bright red Korean Restaurant sign caught my eye so I walked up a few steps and into a cozy red interior. The friendly waiter offered a menu and a cool flask of water & a glass. I ordered my favourite pork bone (not too) spicy soup with vegetables accompanied by 5 small dishe... read more. What User doesn't like about Paldo Gangsan:

There are a lot of booths at Paldo Gangsan. It is very easy for your group to disappear from the view of the service staff and then they forget about serving you. They don't remember who ordered what, they don't come back to ask how things are and getting a bill can be a challenge. And water refills? Forget about it. Other than the service challenges, and the sub par air conditioning (only seems to work near the door... read more. Paldo Gangsan The accomplished Asian fusion cuisine will thrill you, the exquisite mix of familiar flavors and exciting new creations will amaze!, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Korean menus like Kimchi, Bibimbap and Jjigae, which are traditional, always find their way onto the menu card and the tables of the guests, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
