Every time I have been here I have never been disappointed with the food or service. During the Summer it does get a little noisy but that is a good thing, it means they are popular and doing well. If you want an authentic, local cuisine in a historical setting, look no further! read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Lake Louise Station Restaurant:

We thought this would be a step up from the in-hotel restaurants, which were the only other thing available in this little village. Sadly, it was the other way around, Both the food and the service were better in our hotel's modest restaurant than at this place. Though the decor--an classic train depot--is intriguing, the food was slow to arrive and not worth the wait. Dry burger is not a favorite for most of us. My... read more.
