The selection of sauces and rubs is a solid 10/10. The staff know their stuff. Nice small spot and business supports charities in the community. My bone of contention is serving size to cost ration which in my amateur foodie opinion is rather high read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Wing'N It - Cole Harbour:

We met up with friends on a Saturday evening to have dinner and socialize. This was my second time and most likely my last. It has mediocre atmosphere at best so the prices are much higher than expected. I fail to understand the big deal with having so many choices of wing sauces as none that I tried were anything spectacular. It took 30 minutes+ to get a booth cleared for us as there was only one waitress/server. Sh... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful meals, but also a large and comprehensive diversity of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, And of course, you should also try the tasty burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges served. Watching various sports games and matches is also one of the best parts when visiting this sports bar, and you can look forward to typical scrumptious French cuisine.
