What User doesn't like about Menya Japanese Noodle:

Drove all the way to this restaurant, but they wouldn't accept my ID on my phone despite it clearly showing my face on it. I don't understand why they need a physical copy of my ID (a physical copy is not a requirement by BC), in fact many restaurants happily accepts a digital copy as long as its clear and visible. Too bad as I would've loved to try this place out and recommend it to friends. read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Menya Japanese Noodle from Vancouver, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of what you know meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The barbecued food is freshly prepared here on an open flame. The ambiance of the typical American Diner makes the meal an unforgettable experience, On the menu there are also several Asian meals.
