Almost identical to Lake Agnes tea house. This is a very beautiful location and facility that provides tasty (chocolate cake)! treats and drinks at high prices. Definitely recommend enjoying the views and the treats here during a break in your hiking! read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What

User doesn't like about Plain of Six Glaciers Tea House:

The hike was an experience not to miss. The setting was tremendous. On our early morning visit, we felt the food was okay in relation to the cost. We each had the $24 combo special of soup or chili with coffee and the the chocolate cake. The tea house adds a lot to the total hike and scenery. Best if you bring cash, but they will take a credit card plus a fee. Service was super! Highly recommend the whole experience! read more.
