A quiet terrace with bistro tables, several nooks and crannies for sipping a cappuccino, a glass of wine, a double-sided fireplace, quiet jazz music playing softly in the background, an authentic coffee roasting machine occupying a central place in this cozy environment. Breakfasts and lunches are served as well as light suppers. A great change of pace from the cookie-cutter coffee shops. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Brulerie Cafe-Creme:

Stopped in recently to have a refreshing ice latte. Lady serving me was nice and attentive. She even brought my Ice Latte to my table. On the first taste realized the taste was quite off, very sweet even though I had not asked for a sweetener. Came back to inquire if sugar had been added and she responded yes as this was the recipe. I told her I do not want sugar in my coffee due to my belt condition. Her reply was :... read more.
