It's not their fault, but this place is often empty, which detracts from the atmosphere. It is nicely, dimly lit, with great dishes like Chicken Kiev and duck foie gras. When no one else is there you kind of feel like a bother to the...More read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Red Square:

This place is small and the service was not really that impressive. It took time and was not worth the price. Staff members however are very friendly and that's what kinda gave me thoughts to give this place 3 stars. Not that impressed read more. The Red Square from Toronto provides courses that are typical for the entire continent of Europe.
