I came to try this place out with my Persian-Canadian pal, and we were both impressed. I wouldn't know if it's good as Iranian food goes, but she sure did, and we all enjoyed it immensely. The service was great, the prices were more than fair, and the portions were gigantic. You really get a lot of food for your money, which I've noted for next time because I definitely want to go back. The atmosphere is great, with... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Sheherzade:

I think the ambiance, decor, music and service makes me want to try this restaurant again in the future. However, I would not try the same food again (i.e. the food was okay, but not spectacular enough for me to crave it for a second time). It is ideal for a group or a family meal. Also a great restaurant if you want to introduce culture to non-Iranians (esp because of ambiance and decor). The waitress was very polit... read more. At Sheherzade from Toronto you can try delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no animal meat or fish was used, visitors repeatedly praise the fine, light flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs and goat cheese is among the hits from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East. Not to be overlooked is also the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
