What User likes about Tor's Fish & Chips:

I think this is my 20th fish and chip review on tripadvisor and food is subjective, so just because I like it doesn't mean you will and vice versa. Small simple restaurant downtown that holds about 60 people. Good portion meal and the fish was cooked proper and the batter was crisp and evenly cooked, not too much batter. Fresh cut home fries are a must and they have them here. Tarter sauce is homemade and EXCELLANT. G... read more.

By any standard this is a decent enough fish and chip restaurant, the restaurant is attractive and the halibut that I had was very good. The problem is that Duckworth's fish n chips on Atherley Road, also in Orillia, has a wider selection of fish, larger servings and lower prices. That's tough to beat. read more. The Tor's Fish & Chips originating from Orillia serves various fine seafood dishes, The versatile Canadian menus are a hit among the customers of the local.
