Miss your moms cooking? Being away from home may worsen your diet but this place is a nutritious & delicious alternative to eating out elsewhere. It is $5 for rice, some curries, veggies and banana bread usually for dessert.

The food options do not change too often so you might not want to go there every day (you'd get sick of it otherwise). The times are strange though, only 5-8pm Monday-Friday. You must take your sh... read more. What User doesn't like about Govindas Vegetarian Buffet:

Tiny self-serve Indian buffet, with a student co-op feel to it. I loved the dal soup, the rice was good, and both curries were quite tasty. The pasta salad was nice, the garden salad was a bit watery, and the banana cake was somewhat bland yet fresh. Really can't complain for $7 !!! Not sure how much the menu varies, as I've only eaten very occasionally. Not a romantic spot nor a place for kids, but my wife and I defi... read more. At Govindas Vegetarian Buffet from Ottawa you have the opportunity to try delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was used. Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
