What User likes about Le Paltoquet: Read that this was one of the best places for croissants in Montreal. Was not disappointed. Croissants were flaky and buttery with a crisp crust. A bit smaller than most croissants in the city but delicious. We had ours with scrambled eggs inside. Yummy. Breakfast came with a bit of fruit on the side. Sat outside and enjoyed our breakfast with a cafe au lait. Very reasonably priced as well. The smell of freshly baked... read more. What User doesn't like about Le Paltoquet: Much overrated and really bad overall service!!! (some of the employees and the owner really need to reassess their customer service I am not sure why some of these good reviews... It is considered a typical French pâtisseries, but they would never make it in Paris.... Their pastries are much too sweet, only packed with sugar and low taste. Things have changed there since most of these reviews. Only in Outremont the...
