It's in a great location at the centre of the old port. We were hungry and the place had enough room for us to sit. Food was good, but the prices in my opinion were too high for what we ordered. I don't think it has to do with the restaurant, I think it has to do with any restaurants in that location who are overcharging because of the amount of traffic. The pizza was great as well as the pasta. Service was very good, no... read more.
