Use the Groupon and came with my family (3 kids). We came at lunch time. Not that busy. The chef didn't talk too much. I guess because no audience. My youngest kid really enjoy the 'show'. Almost the same show with other teppanyaki show in USA. Overall not too bad experience. We got salad and sushi and and the end we got ice cream. The fried rice was good. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Hibachi:

If you want a nice dinner - do NOT go here. You will be rushed even is half the restaurant is empty. The minute you get the menu the server is hounding you for your drinks order suggesting an overpriced but slightly above average sake, and even before he brings your drinks he is asking for your order and starting to serve your dinner. The chef with glasses (the thinner one) does not know how to divide food properly a... read more. You can at Hibachi from Oakville taste delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, The barbecued food is freshly prepared here on an open flame. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
