Four of us dropped into this Pub for supper last night. I had Bangers & Mash as I almost always do when I go to a Pub, and I must say it was different(no baked beans but had green peas in gravy with the mashed...More read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Fiddle & Firkin:

Been here a few times, normally a late night hike downtown Preston, leads me and fellow friends here. The kitchen is open late so its nice to be able to get some pub food.Drinks are fair priced and service has been great every time i have been.Atmosphere is very good and they bring in live music on the regular.... Makes this place all the more welcoming...Only criticism is the last visit there was on fish and chips s... read more.
