What kind of place was that? We stayed overnight in Yarmouth and had dinner at The Dinner Plate. The staff was very friendly and welcoming. The service was fast and food was amazing. My husband had the bread pudding for the desert. It's his favorite and commands it's going anywhere we go and he said that this, by far, is his favorite. When it was placed in front of him, everything you could smell was a warm nutmeg. I... read more.

What Troy Bell doesn't like about The Dinner Plate:

The food was disappointing !!They missed the mark on the seafood. The clams and haddock were fresh but the batter was very light and over cooked and so were the fries. Portions were small and the food had little flavor.

Had coconut cream pie for dessert which also could have been a lot better. The taste was off not what you expect from a freshly made slice of pie The place was busy, food arrived to the table a bit sl... read more.
