What User likes about Onnuri:

great new Korean place to try! the fried chicken are quite large and the portions are decent in view of the price (also comes with a side of french fries). they are extra crispy (the only thing was that we ordered snow fried chicken, which is usually covered with powder cheese, but instead get melted cheese on order). I also have the kichi bulgoggi that tasted. it was very tasteful and authentic. the service was also friend... read more. What User

doesn't like about Onnuri:

The food is good but don't understand why there's only one waitress during weekend busy hours....we literally waited at the door to be seated for 20mins while there's spot available and waited another 20mins to have something to drink....the restaurant is packed and there are lots of takeout orders so be prepared to wait for at least 1hr to have your food. MAKE sure u grab a snack before u come here?for the service I jus... read more. At
