The Menu of Japas from Toronto contains about 35 different meals and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about CA$13. What Bianca Devins likes about Japas:

Everything we ordered was skilfully prepared and absolutely delicious. Grilled mackerel is one of my favourite things, and it was the best sharing plate followed closely by okonomiyaki. This food pairs well with a light Japanese beer like Asahi. I wish it was closer to where I live. read more. What Joseph Griffin doesn't like about Japas:

worst serviceliterally server hangs around the bar.When we tried to get their attention they walk away. We literally had our empty drink for 10 minutes multiple times. It's absurd to add auto grat and giving poor service cause they know they are going to get 15% tip.My friend was in town and this was the closest spot so we went. I've been here few times and service is usually garbage read more. With a large selection of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, the Japas from Toronto prepares easy-to-digest, delicious Japanese dishes, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Additionally, the restaurant offers a comprehensive assortment of aromatic tapas, which will certainly leave a lasting impression, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
