I and my friend visited here from England while we visited vacation and family, and we were ready to get drunk. Staff very welcoming, especially a woman named Britt, who was very nice and helpful. Nice place and beautiful.

We both recommended a visit. read more. What User doesn't like about Laissez Faire:

The place that seems like a perfect place for a nice, quiet dinner after a long week that turns out to be a hidden nook in between the busiest area in town with great food yet horrendous atmosphere. I honestly do not enjoy having to scream to a friend across the table. Even when we asked to lower down the music it still felt like I was at a concert. All that to say: venison was incredible and the oysters so fresh we... read more.
