I visited regina for a few weeks in september, and that was the most unique and wonderful restaraunt I visited during my time in the city. my table shared suppe and banock, a taco poutine and a dessert. Unfortunately, the bannock pizza was not on camp. but all we had was so good that I will still give the bannock house 5 stars. thanks for the great experience and I hope that I will try next time in the city pizza!
