Food was great, but service was not good. Although we ordered a large plate the portions were small but the food was overall tasty. Was given drink tokens at check in to hotel but upon paying for bill they could not be used because the token use was not communicated properly. Overall expensive for what you get and service could be much better. read more. Brazen is famous for its diverse Canadian meals, made from typical country ingredients, In addition, the charming desserts of the restaurant shine not only in the eyes of the little guests.
