Our waiter was awesome and drinks were great! The hostess was unfriendly and just stared at me when I walked in; so I greeted her. I had the burrata and the beet carpaccio; both were really good! My husband had the kale salad and the 100 layer lasagna. Lasagna was 100 layers of noodles, so not overly flavourful, but salad was great! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User

doesn't like about La Palma:

FOOD: quite disappointed• Chickpea Agnolotti: I love the cream sauce but the filling of the agnolotti tastes pretty weird. • Pomodoro pizza: The pizza was oily, the crust was burnt in the bottom, and the basils are ...crispy. •

Bufala Mozzarella: it taste ok, not sure what's the cucumbers are for as they're so thin that if I breath hard they'll fly away. SERVICE: my waitress look unhappy for some reason since the moment... read more. La Palma from
