Honestly, the food is quite meh. But this is standard for chain restaurants. This makes sense, as they are mostly owned by the same company. But who goes to a chain for a gourmet experience? Just crazy people who don't know a good meal from McDonald on their lap. Food on a chain is safe, familiar and nothing special. However, the service was better than expected. Basically, they didn't forget what anyone really can a... read more. What

User doesn't like about Original Joe's:

The food was delicious but the service was awful. It was a young male, Asian I think, was the worst waiter I've had in my life. He checked on us about every 20 min. And we spent about $400 in totally between the three of us. We unfortunately decided to not leave a tip and that makes me sad. Good food, bad service read more.
