I really like this sushi restaurant. Always fresh food and perfect size of portions, and prices are good too. It's my the most preferable sushi place. I buy sushi there at least twice a month. read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, and there is no-charge WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Sushi-Man:

My one and only visit here last fall was disappointing. I found the restaurant decor tired, the washroom messy.

The sushi was unexceptional, and the service mediocre. I usually only write reviews of restaurants I like, but realize it is a help to steer people away from disappointment, when there are so many better choices within blocks. read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Sushi-Man from North Vancouver, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The customers of the restaurant also consider the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. Freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are the main ingredients in the easily digestible Japanese cuisine of Sushi-Man, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
