Sushi and mouthwatering sashimi! You'd think that this was done in the heart of Japan, but it's really from a restaurant called Okane. The two dozen Maki rolls ordered came with a fresh salad that gave a smile to the face. The big rolls and the small rolls were raised. The Sashimi was delicate and tasteful. Add some ginger to the mix and you have a fairly appetizing meal on your hands. They were also very generous with... read more. What

User doesn't like about Okane Sushi Notre Dame:

Got the 24 piece Maki combo delivered, no tuna or salmon included which is extremely disappointing, especially when salmon is prominently featured on the picture. Fried roll was very oily and wet. Quality of the rest was good though, recommended to not go for the chef's choice combos and you'll probably enjoy the read more. For you,
